

IMPORTANT CHANGES TO BOLDMERE SWIMMING CLUB – PLEASE READ

---

Boldmere Swimming Club are proud to have been teaching the children of Sutton Coldfield and North Birmingham to swim since 1895.

From 1st September 2017 Boldmere Swimming Club will not be allowed to provide swimming lessons at Wyndley or Erdington swimming pools.

This follows Wyndley and Erdington swimming pools being taken over by Birmingham City Leisure Trust. Birmingham City Leisure Trust are a private operator and have given notice that from 1st September 2017 Boldmere Swimming Club will not be allowed to provide swimming lessons to swimmers at ASA Stage 5 or below in any of their pools.

In the Boldmere Learn to Swim Programme swimmers at ASA Stage 5 are usually swimming widths.

From 1st September 2017 Boldmere Swimming Club will transfer its Learn to Swim Programme to Castle Vale swimming pool and to other suitable local pools.

The club will continue to provide sessions for swimmers at ASA Stage 6 and above at Wyndley and Erdington pools as well as sessions for developing swimmers and competitive swimmers.

The dates and times of the new sessions will be advised in early July.

If you want to know more about how this might affect you please speak to one of your committee members who will be available at the Boldmere Learn to Swim sessions on the week beginning Monday 6th March.
